TIMELINE

Week 1

After retaining MICS and paying its initial professional fee, the first step is to choose the investment type and sign the property reservation agreement and pay the 30% deposit of the property in real estate acquisition type. The applicant can choose the property in person or via a video call.

MICS will then provide a detailed list of required civil and financial documents. Once all documents are collected and ready for submission, the government processing fees, due diligence fees, and MICS's second professional fee will be due.

Week 2

The completed application will be evaluated for conformity with the Georgia residence permit. The applicant will be invited to complete the real estate purchase.

Week 3-6

The residency permit will be issued for all family members in the file, and the passport applications will be finalized.

After approval of the residence permit, Georgia ID card will be issued. They can be collected in one of the MICS offices or delivered to the applicants. This is when the final payment of the MICS professional fee balance will be due.
